

Jessica Gilbertson | Policy & Partnership Manager

Jessica Gilbertson joined CHAD as the policy and partnership manager in September 2019. In her role, she will focus on advancing the priorities of Community Health Centers in the Dakotas through state and federal policy as well as furthering organizational partnerships. Jessica has more than ten years of experience working with nonprofits on advocacy and fundraising. She also spent three years working with the ND State Department of Health on a program aimed at reducing cancer health disparities across the state. Most recently, Jessica worked as the development director of a long-term care facility in Bismarck.

Jessica received a bachelor's degree in communication from North Dakota State University and a Master of Public Administration degree from the University of North Dakota. She lives in Bismarck with her husband and two children.